

SCHWANE HAS LEFT.

HIS PLACE CLOSED YESTERDAY AND HE HAD GONE AWAY.

His Departure a Great Surprise to Those with Whom He Had Business
Transactions—Circumstances of His Leaving.

Anton Schwane, proprietor of the bar and restaurant at No. 400 east Broad street, has disappeared; it may be to return again, but if so, he has not made known that intention.

Schwane, who was better known as "Tony," came here about a year ago, and located at Sanger Hall, opening a bar and restaurant there, but in a very short while the place was burned out, and he collected the insurance, or that portion of it that was left when the courts and his creditors finished with it, and moved to No. 400 east Broad street, where he again set up a bar. From the very start he did a large business, and being apparently very prosperous, had no difficulty in securing plenty of credit.

Many of his creditors he paid with great regularity, and everything progressed smoothly for them. The bar and restaurant were rented to him by the Peter Stump Brewing Company, and from them he purchased the bulk of his beer, and they extended to him all the credit he wanted.

He did a big business during the reunion, and it is estimated, took in something like $500 or $600 each day during the week. He was extremely popular, and when any of his creditors asked for settlements told them to come around yesterday and collect. He had previously been paying cash for his beer and milk, and such other small purchases as he made daily, but last week he gave the men who delivered him these goods tickets, which they were told to collect yesterday.

On Sunday he kept his place open during the morning, telling his barkeeper that he didn't report for duty until 10 o'clock Monday morning. When the young man reached the bar yesterday he found the place closed and a man named Schwane in front of it who wanted to know where Schwane was.

It was soon ascertained, however, that he had gone, and with him had taken his wife and boy. A Mrs. Richmond Transfer Company who had been the driving "barkeeper" to the Chesapeake and Ohio depot, was found, and he stated that Schwane had left the depot, and was on the 3:30 o'clock train for the West.

The representative of the Peter Stump Brewing Company, as soon as this information was imparted, took possession. He found that Schwane had left no money in the cash drawer and that he had taken with him almost everything of value in the saloon and restaurant. He had left the place behind, and also a large number of creditors in almost every branch of business in the city.

Just who these creditors are, or how much Schwane is indebted to them, could not be learned yesterday.

Schwane is a German, having come originally from a point on the Rhine, where he claimed to be a wine merchant, and is a large wine manufacturer. He came here direct from Chicago, and it is believed he has gone back there.

HIG DOCKET OF SMALL CASES.

Many Offenders Before the Justice,
But the Charges Are Trifling.

Justice Crutchfield was confronted with a long docket of small cases, and all sorts of evil doers were represented in the names which appeared opposite each charge.

Even the name of Solomon Marable, the negro who was hanged last Friday for the murder of Mrs. Pollard, figured in the proceedings. Solomon's friends were charged with stealing his body, but their cases were dismissed upon the request of the plaintiff. The friends of H. C. Selden, charged on search warrant with stealing the dead body of Solomon Marable, and John Mitchell, Jr., charged with abducting the body of Solomon Marable, the same being the person Marable of the Medical College of Virginia. Solomon's body is now in North Carolina, and the cases were promptly dismissed.

Walter Henderson, a colored man, charged with being a suspicious character and stealing a rifle and hat, all of the value of $3, from Mr. W. T. Pearson. On the first charge he was required to go to the second for six months to the grand jury. Charles James, a colored youth, borrowed his brother's bicycle last Saturday afternoon, and went out a merry party. He ran over a little piece of Mr. C. B. Hundley, but fortunately the little girl was not seriously hurt. The justice seemed convinced that the affair was accidental, but fined the prisoner $5 for carelessness.

A. B. Little was a prisoner in the court yesterday, charged with assaulting W. O. Mitchell, and also being drunk. Mrs. Little was there to defend her husband and her sister, who is the mother-in-law of Mr. Mitchell, helped the prosecution. Justice Crutchfield listened to fifteen minutes to the details of a merry family row, and then dismissed the charges.

Willis Glass was charged with abusing and using indecent language to Lucy Moore, and also for the result of a Moore. The affair was also for a Moore. The justice settled the matter by fining Willis $10 and requiring $10 security for six months. Lee King, a small boy charged with being a vagrant, was sent to the reformatory. The little fellow claimed to be homeless.

Samuel Johnson was sent on to the grand jury on the charge of breaking into the dwelling-house of Mr. Ben. Jacobs and stealing a pair of pants.

Magistrate Lewis yesterday held an inquest over the remains of James Craig, the white man who was killed at the Exposition-Grounds Thursday by Charles Stewart. Considerable testimony was adduced, and the jury returned a verdict to the effect that James Craig met his death from a blow on his head dealt with a club in the hands of Charles Stewart. Stewart's case will be tried to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Messrs. Thomas W. Gardner and James W. Gardner, counsel for the defense, will enter a plea of self-defense. Anxious About Her Daughter.

Rosa Ligan Johnson, a colored girl about 15 years old, came to Richmond about a week ago to take a place which had been secured for her by her mother, but since her arrival in this city nothing has been known as to her whereabouts. The girl, whose mother lives in Manchester, was to have gotten off in that city, and it is thought that she came to Richmond through mistake.

Any information as to the girl's whereabouts will be thankfully received at 612 Grace street.

A great many people are not.

There are many forms of sickness which leave an outward mark on the face, and it is like a bubble that bursts at a touch. It is like an empty egg shell that the slightest pressure will crush. The outside of the body may look all right, but inside after disease has begun its dreadful work. If a man looks well and doesn't feel well, he had better be governed by the feeling than by the looks. A great many apparently strong and vigorous men collapse suddenly. They have what is known as nervous prostration. They go along persistently day after day, working hard and drinking hard, apparently healthy, and some day they go down and go to bed and don't get up again. The trouble didn't all come at once. It came on gradually. A strong man can live on his nerves and his health for a long time, but he can't go on like that. It is a safe thing to do. Whenever there is nervousness, or insomnia, or undue fatigue from ordinary work, which irritates take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the best tonic medicine in the world. It assists digestion, increases the appetite, promotes thorough assimilation of the food, purifies the blood and adds to the life-giving principles that are needed to feed the starved nerves. It stimulates the whole body into perfect tone, and stimulates each organ to do the work for which it was intended. Thousands of people have been cured of most serious sickness by this wonderful medicine. Druggists sell it.
